Dr. Courtney Gober, Steve Ewing, Sharon Bradley, Denise Hammersla, Plano ISD – PLC's: Truancy...County Court or District Support?

Learn how to build district capacity to design an internal platform to hear individual family cases to discover the root causes of student attendance issues and implement appropriate district support. Focus on Evidence-based approaches that change student behavior and increase student attendance amongst high-risk populations to re-engage students and families, improve graduation rates, and increase the district's attendance rate.

Dr. Philip Capin, UT Meadows – Establishing School-wide Practices to Improve Outcomes for Secondary English Learners

Despite their significant potential, many English Learners do not meet grade level expectations. This presentation will highlight a few high-leverage practices that benefit all middle school students but are particularly critical to the success of English Learners. Recommendations for school leaders looking to close the achievement for English Learners will be discussed.

- Dr. Herb Cox, Baylor - Building a Strong Campus Culture

Hear about some of the things that made us successful at Midway Middle School like: TLCs, Mission and Vision, and Good to Great! Knowing what you stand for on your campus Rtl and how that can change the trajectory of your student's academic success. Celebrations to empower your teachers; also creating a "Fail Safe" campus culture, and developing a culture of positive discontent. Join us!

- Sean Cain - Recognize and Reinforce the Lasso Way "I think if you care about someone and you got a little love in your heart, there ain't nothin' you can't get through together." -Ted Lasso | We can make a great impact. We can be role models. We can make things better for the people we work with and the students we serve. This session will focus on the power of common-sense goodness elevated to a practice that can create a safe, productive place for students and adults. AI

7:30 AM – 8:15 AM | CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST / VISIT EXHIBITS

8:15 AM – 11:15 AM □ | GENERAL SESSION - Dr. Adam Saenz

• PART I - The Power of Connection

Remember? You went into education to make a difference! But is it really possible to build the kinds of life-impacting relationships with students in the wake of the massive disruptions caused by a global pandemic? Licensed psychologist Dr. Adam L. Saenz answers with a resounding, "Yes! Dr. Saenz presents two case studies that will encourage you by reminding you that that what you do in your role in education doesn't just matter—it matters deeply. We in education are uniquely postured to make life-changing impacts in the students with whom we interact every day.

9:30 AM – 10:00 AM □ | INTERMISSION BREAK / VISIT EXHIBITS

• PART II - Survival Mode: What is it, How did I get here, and How do I get out?

Each day presents new challenges for educators in the pandemic: student attendance, staff shortages, concerned parents, and the demands of our personal lives can leave us feeling like we're just living to get through the day (or the hour!). It's called "survival mode." While knowing how to live in survival mode is necessary through these times, we do not want it to become our new normal. The good news is that we can make small physical and mental adjustments each day that will keep us from being driven by the chaos of external forces.

11:15 AM – 12:45 PM | VISIT EXHIBITS / LUNCH on your own

12:45 PM – 2:00 PM | BREAKOUT SESSION SET 3: (Sessions repeat in Set 4)

Sophia Acevedo - Leadership and the Pandemic: Finding ways to keep the campus focused during the onset of Covid fatigue.

Principals are the instructional leader on their campus; but they are also the gatekeeper for culture, social emotional health, and the one responsible for moving the campus forward. This upbeat session will build up the campus leader with stories of celebrations, ideas and tools for staying focused on the work, and how to stay focused on the future.

Dr. Tricia Tsang, Lead Your School – Stealth SEL and The Fundamental 5

Teachers have too much to accomplish in the time allotted. Cover content, deliver high quality instruction, maintain hygiene protocols, and meet student EMOTIONAL HEALTH NEEDS... in 45 minutes. Impossible! Or is it? Join Dr. Tsang to learn how to manage a classroom and implement a body of FUNDAMENTAL practice that double and triple dips every action. Aligned with The Fundamental 5

Kay Clark, iTeach – Learn How Alt Certification Works to Increase Teacher Pool

Come and learn how iTeach works and what is required by the state when you hire an alt certification candidate. We will also talk about how we can help you increase your pool of teachers by tapping into your degreed paraprofessionals and teacher ides that already have a 4-year degree.

David Waldherr, Cambridge Education with Cheryl Baird and Linda Walls - Learn More With Less For Accelerated Skills Recovery

It is possible to accelerate skills recovery by addressing a much more limited number of skill gaps. In 45-minutes you can administer an accelerated skills achievement assessment in mathematics and reading to better help you and your staff respond to your students' level of skill development. Specifically, this webinar will support you and your staff to: gain strategies and methods to deliver the new normal of highly effective instruction; define the support and coaching your staff needs to successfully transition to using higher impact instructional practices, and provide staff with the skills, behaviors, and intrinsic belief system to support students in a new learning environment.

Dr. Adam Saenz - The Hero's Journey: A New Way to Understand Stress

Stress is energy our bodies produce when we wonder whether we can deal effectively with a given task (like teaching through a global pandemic!). Believe it or not, stress doesn't have to be the enemy. In fact, stress can be a fuel source (adrenaline and cortisol) that powers us to peak performance in all areas of our lives, turning us into life givers instead of life suckers. We'll explore the sources of our stress, the impact it has on our body, and how we can hack that energy to slay the dragons we face as we journey through the forest of the unknown. Learn: fight or flight strategies that create tonic (versus toxic), life giving work environments; fight or flight strategies that create toxic (versus tonic) life sucking work environments; Participants will build their personal Dream Team—those four relationships that any educator must have to stay at top performance.
